General Terms and Conditions of EDRA Media GmbH for Visitors to LEGAL REVOLUTION 2026

We are very pleased that you are attending LEGAL REVOLUTION. Do you have any questions or other concerns regarding our General Terms and Conditions? You can reach us at Info@LEGAL-REVOLUTION.com.

To make our General Terms and Conditions easier to understand, the German source text avoids naming multiple genders and attempts to use gender-neutral terms. Where this is not practical, the masculine form is used, for example “the visitor”. This always refers equally to all genders.

These General Terms and Conditions apply to visitors to LEGAL REVOLUTION 2026 (the “Event”), which is organised by EDRA Media GmbH (the “Organiser”).

1. Attendance at the trade exhibition and specialist congress

In order for a visitor to gain access to the Event, a ticket must be purchased via the website pretix.eu. During registration, the visitor creates a profile in which questions about the person, such as first and last name, company, position, city and profile picture, as well as areas of interest, are answered or provided. The profile is included in the participant directory and is available to all participants of Legal Revolution 2026. It serves interactive contact and networking among participants.

The Organiser may cancel registration for the Event if the registered person does not belong to the visitor groups referred to in section 1.2. The Organiser may also cancel registration if other objective reasons exist, for example if the Event is cancelled.

LEGAL REVOLUTION 2026 is an in-person congress and exhibition for trade visitors. We offer different visitor ticket categories for the visitor groups listed below.

Special Tickets

Reserved for young professionals up to the age of 35, students, members of partner associations, associations, cooperation partners, judicial authorities, ministries of justice and chambers of justice, academic institutions and universities.

Expo, Expo & Congress, Expo & Congress Plus and Service Provider

Reserved for members of law firms, tax advisory firms and auditing firms, legal departments, compliance departments, tax departments, digitalisation departments, IT departments, HR departments, M&A departments, regulatory departments, alternative legal service providers, notaries, insolvency administrators, providers of products and services for law firms and legal departments, such as legal-tech providers and software providers, and all other visitors for whom no other ticket is reserved.

Student ticket

Reserved for full-time students, doctoral candidates and trainee lawyers. Proof must be provided.

Press and press accreditation

Reserved for members of the press and reporting media. Proof must be provided.

Visitors must provide proof of belonging to one of the visitor groups upon request. If they fail to do so or if the classification proves to be incorrect, we will charge an amount of EUR 200.

The Organiser reserves the right to refuse a visitor admission to or continued presence at the Event if the visitor engages in advertising activity at LEGAL REVOLUTION 2026 without being registered as exhibitor staff with an exhibitor ticket, demonstrably behaves unethically, uses the communication options of LEGAL REVOLUTION 2026 for purposes outside the professional subject areas of LEGAL REVOLUTION 2026, or fails to comply with the rules set out in these General Terms and Conditions. The Organiser will not reimburse any expenses incurred as a result.

2. Cancellation conditions, transfers and changes

Admission tickets may be transferred to another participant of the same or another legal entity. No additional fees will be charged. Changes and transfers can and must be carried out independently via the links provided when the ticket is booked. No service fee is charged for changing or transferring admission tickets.

The Organiser reserves the right to cancel the Event 14 days before the start of the Event if fewer than 800 visitors have registered by that time. In this case, the visitor may choose either to receive a refund of the participation fee already paid or to be rebooked to another event of the Organiser. The visitor has no further claims. The current number of visitors may be requested at any time.

It is possible that individual presentations, other Event content and speakers may change, be replaced or be cancelled, provided that the overall character of the Event is not materially affected. The Organiser does not warrant the substantive correctness, accuracy or completeness of the Event content.

3. COVID-19-related cancellation, force majeure

The Organiser reserves the right to cancel the Event in whole or in part for reasons connected with the COVID-19 virus, for example because the risk situation is reassessed due to COVID-19. Such cancellation shall be deemed withdrawal from the contract or contracts between the Organiser and the visitor. The visitor may obtain information at any time before, during or after registration by telephone at +49 151 648 67 438 or in writing at Info@LEGAL-REVOLUTION.com.

The Event may be cancelled, among other reasons, due to force majeure such as war, terrorist attacks, natural disasters, uprising, strike, by operation of law or for another reason not attributable to the Organiser.

4. Data protection and privacy policy

The processing of personal data is carried out by pretix. Further information on pretix’s privacy policy can be viewed there.

Further information on the privacy policies of EDRA Media GmbH can be viewed there.

5. Liability

The Organiser is not responsible and is not liable for damage caused by anyone other than the Organiser itself, its legal representatives or vicarious agents.

The sponsors or exhibitors of the Event are not deemed to be vicarious agents of the Organiser.

If a visitor causes damage to a third party, the visitor is obliged to indemnify the Organiser against all claims asserted against the Organiser on the basis of such damage.

6. Applicable law and place of jurisdiction

These contractual terms are governed by German law.

Frankfurt am Main is agreed as the place of jurisdiction.
